

PRESS RELEASE

February 2, 2015

mended

A travelling exhibition of contemporary textile art
Surface Design Association of British Columbia and Yukon

In this exhibition twenty-five BC textile artists created new two and three-dimensional works in response to the word mended.

A broken heart, relationships and even a pair of old socks can require mending at some point. Is it possible to make something more useful or functional by mending? And what about mending your ways? The works in this exhibition reflect diverse experiences and interpretations of mending through creative expressions about family, love, loss, and renewal.
